Dear Brad:

I would like to take this opportunity to commend your company for the excellent workmanship that was displayed throughout our Sanctuary building project. With this being our largest building project to date, we were understandably somewhat anxious, but found that each phase was completed on time and to our satisfaction.

Your staff displayed the upmost integrity throughout our working relationship, and everyone was courteous and helpful to answer any questions or concerns promptly. Fullmer Construction provided Calvary Chapel of the Chino Valley with our beautiful Sanctuary, and I would highly recommend them to anyone who is considering a building project in the future.

In His Service,

DAVID ROSALES
